GENERAL NEWS.

—The people in Kentucky will hold their election for Congressmen on the 4th of May next.

—A gentleman has found silver on the Cumberland River, near Smithland, Ky., has sought land, and reckons himself a millionaire.

—A crop of leaf tobacco sold in Lynchburg, Virginia, a few days ago, averaged the very high price of forty dollars per hundred weight.

—Gough says the last winter was the hardest in all his lecture experience. He lost fourteen engagements owing to storms and delays on railroads.

—An unusual area is being planted in corn in Upper Georgia, and it is not an unusual thing to see white women dropping seed and hoeing in the fields.

—Twenty bishops who died in Ireland during the past forty-five years left, severally, money amounting to the average of $275,000 each, not to speak of real estate.

—A letter from Madrid says: "The evening before last several individuals were arrested at the Theatre Royal for imitating the barking of dogs as the Queen entered her box."

—The last revolutionary pensioner in Maine, Mrs. Rhoda Green, died at Lisbon on the 15th at the age of 104. She had 32 direct descendants, of whom 206 are now living.

—Florida produces lemons that weigh over a pound, and are twelve inches in circumference. They are obtained by a cross between the common lemon and the sour orange.

—It is announced that a French chemist, by combining gun cotton with ammonia, has succeeded in obviating the danger of explosion from spontaneous combustion in gun cotton.

—It is said that the State Department, in addition to the Embassy it will maintain at Rome as already arrived in this country, is expecting a Minister from Turkey and a Minister from Greece.

—It will be a year on the 1st of May since George Peabody arrived in the Scotia at New York. With the strictest economy it must have cost him at least $1,000,000 to get along the twelve-month.

—Cuban capitalists fear that the prosperity of the island is on the wane. The abolition of slavery is believed to be inevitable, and a great decrease in the production of sugar, in consequence, is feared.

—A bank-stock-and-bond-and-mortgage wedding came off recently in Boston. The friends and relatives of the wedded pair are said to represent at least twenty millions. No poor relations in that family.

—A Western man, speaking of the Pacific Railroad, says it is one of the "dumbest consolidations in the world, that almost every alternate section of land, on either side of the road, belongs to some member of Congress."

—Jenkins is at the bedside of the French Prince Imperial, and thus reports his diet: "He had, on Wednesday night, a nourishing broth made with beef, veal and chicken. Yesterday he ate a cutlet and drank a little claret."

—Justice is in danger in Texas. A Judge of the State writes that no Court will be held in his county this spring, because the Indians have stolen all the horses, and neither lawyers nor clients can procure conveyances.

—The Home Journal hints at a magnificent wedding soon to take place in New York, to which there are to be twelve hundred invitations to the church, and a thousand less to the house. The bride elect is a belle and the groom a Major General.

—A gentleman in Hartford, Connecticut, has had manufactured to order a veritable wooden guinea. It is made from the bark of the Charter Oak, and so completed an imitation that it actually deceived a dealer in the article, who offered the market price for a piece of the same.

—The French Jenkins writes: "I was the other day in M. de Lamartine's study. The servant was shaking and sweeping the magnificent carpet, with a white ground, which was covered with snuff. M. de Lamartine snuffs more than twenty-odd women, and the greater part of his pinches fall on the carpet."

—The railway ep Mount Washington is being constructed with great activity. The track iron is being transported to the base of the mountain, and teams and laborers are hard at work. A large and magnificent hotel will be built this summer, and will be ready for the travel of next year.

—The New Bedford (Mass.) Mercury announces the death of Mrs. Nancy Rotch, of that city, at the age of nine-one. She was the widow of Francis Rotch, Esq., one of the owners of the ship Dartmouth, celebrated as the vessel which bore from Boston the first tea which was thrown overboard by the "Mohawks" in 1773.

—The Virginia Legislature has passed a bill suspending, for two years, the oyster and capitation tax in Chincoteague Island on account of the great losses sustained by the inhabitants by the late floods and storms. The Senate has ordered to an engrossment a bill appropriating $80,000 to educate white and black children.

—Silk worms, after various experiments it is found, can be grown on oak trees, and this kind of silk worm is being introduced into Europe to so great an extent that it is the belief there that the oaks of European forests will soon produce abundant silk crops, especially in sections where the silk of the mulberry cannot be produced.

—There are eighty-nine places in England and Wales containing upwards of two thousand inhabitants, with no telegraphic communication. This condition of things contrasts unfavorably with the Belgian and Swiss systems. In Belgium there is one office for every fifteen thousand, and in Switzerland one for every ten thousand inhabitants.

—Recorder Hackett, of New York, is awarding some severe sentences to prisoners who have been convicted at the present term of his court. He has sentenced one man, found guilty of arson, to imprisonment for life, and four others, who were convicted of robbery under aggravated circumstances, each to twenty years' confinement at Sing Sing.

Cause of the Panic in Foreign Securities—Belief that Repudiation would Follow in case of War Between France and Germany—The Luxemburg Question—Prussia Will Not Consent to Neutralization or Evacuate the Fortress—London Times on the Situation—France Ready for Any Emergency.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

NEW YORK, May 2.—The steamship Persia, from Liverpool on the 26th, and Queenstown on the 21st, arrived at 3 o'clock this evening.

The London Times city article of the 18th says: Heavy quotations from Berlin caused a renewed decline in Consols, accompanied by a fresh panic in foreign securities, averaging 1 per cent. Although the panic arising from the effects of such adverse rumor in Berlin or Paris, the impression would seem to be entertained that any rupture between France and Germany would be the signal for every nation in the world to repudiate its obligations. A telegram from Berlin on the 18th describes the general talk to effect sales without assigning any reason. The King's speech it is said produced a bad effect.

The Morning Star says it is intimated that the feeling in Berlin was produced by the threat of Bismarck to resign, the King of Prussia being disposed to forge war at all hazards.

The Times' Paris correspondent states that a private letter from persons in high position in Germany declared that it was impossible for him to make any concession in regard to Luxemburg. He could not consent to the cession of territory or the withdrawal of the Prussian troops from the fortress, or admit the question open to negotiation, and if Prussia was willing, Germany would not hesitate to go to war.

There is a vague rumor that the King of Prussia will not leave Berlin.

The Times editorially says: Nothing at this moment could be more significant than the speech in the Prussian Chamber which closed the first session of the North German Parliament. All reticence was now cast aside, and whatever importance the Emperor Napoleon may attach to the treaty at Prague, at Berlin neither the sovereign nor the people deem German nationality attached with Austria. Foreign powers have any business to concern themselves.

The Memorial Diplomatique publishes a telegram from Berlin stating that Prussia had determined not to evacuate Luxemburg under any circumstances, and in official circles such evacuation would be considered equivalent to an indication of the position Prussia acquired by recent events.

A Paris correspondent says he is assured that preparations are making to have the French army ready for any emergency, and that Austria may be prepared for a sudden call than many suppose.

A telegram from Paris on the ninth, to the effect that proceedings had been instituted in Rome against the Count de Sartiges, was premature. It is not true that France was about to declare war. The Emperor is said, however, to be prepared for any emergency. The Mexican transports have returned with 50,000 men, who can be landed on any coast.

The Times refers to the American Revenue Commissioner as about to visit England, saying he will find it a most opportune moment for the revelations of the English treaties, which will be ready for his notice and consideration.

Baron Von Wallesdorf has resigned the Ministry of Commerce and is appointed Commander of the Austrian expedition to Eastern Asia, with power to conclude commercial treaties with Siam, Japan and China.

The fortress of Belgrade has been ceded to Servia and was taken possession of by the Servian authorities on the 24th. Prince Michael, reading the Sultan's firman on that day to the troops.

The London Times, after discussing the Spanish decree relative to the Victoria, says it is not a first instance of redress having been obtained. We may feel satisfied on the final adjustment of the differences, and nothing but the continued imprisonment of Macpherson, the engineer of the Tornado, stands in way of the speedy reference to arbitration, if proposed.

The London Morning Post says the people of America have not reason to take umbrage at Russian America merely from an ambitious desire to enlarge their territory, but with a view of turning it to favorable account, as they did Louisiana and Florida.

The King and Queen of Portugal leave Lisbon for Paris on the 24th.

Bank of Portugal notes have been forged, and a photographer arrested.

A Madrid letter of the 14th states it is known there that an English fleet is cruising off Cadiz, but the journals are interdicted from publishing the fact.

The frigate Orente arrived at Queenstown on the 19th with troops from Quebec.

Further arrests of Fenians in Ireland have been made, and a vigorous search in the country is going on.

RUSSIA.

THE NEGOTIATIONS FOR THE CESSION OF RUSSIAN POSSESSIONS A FOREGONE AGGERT.

NEW YORK, May 2.—The World's St. Petersburg letter says the news of the cession of Russian America created quite a sensation. The negotiation has been going on since last summer, and only Gortschakoff and one other Minister were aware of it. So complete was the secrecy that only a few months ago a concession to the Russo-American Company was renewed for twenty years. The Minister of Finance was so entirely in the dark that only a week before the news of the sale became known, he authorized the Company to receive a loan from the Bank of Russia of one million roubles, to be paid in fourteen years. The Russo-American Company appears the only gainer by the transaction, its shares having risen from sixty roubles to one hundred and fifty, their par value.

FROM CANADA.

Parliament Further Prorogued—Movements of Farmers—St. Lawrence Canal Opened—Activity in Produce Market.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

MONTREAL, May 2.—Parliament is further prorogued until the 16th of May.

The steamer St. George, from Glasgow, passed Farther Point this morning. The Moravian left for Portland this morning.

TORONTO, May 2.—The St. Lawrence Canal was opened to-day. Great activity in produce is looked for during the coming week. Breadstuffs are firm at high prices. A great quantity of grain is here in the warehouses awaiting shipment.

FROM MEXICO.

Gomez Proclaims Against Juarez and in Favor of Ortega—Perfiero Diaz Occupies a Portion of the City of Mexico, Which is Still Defended by the Imperialists—Further from Queretaro—The Imperialist Defeat—Liberals Master of the Situation.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

NEW ORLEANS, May 2.—Advices from Tampico to the 24th all say that Gomez had pronounced against Juarez in favor of Ortega.

Dates from Matamoras to the 28th say news had reached Monterey on the 24th, to the following effect: Perfiero Diaz occupies part of the City of Mexico, and has his headquarters at the Convent Santa Dominigo, within two squares of the main Plaza. The city is still defended by the imperialists.

General Labert at the head of a body of imperialists had made another attempt to cut his way out of Queretaro. The Imperialists at Queretaro were literally in a starving condition.

General Guadaroma, who pursued and routed the Imperial forces under Marquese, has returned to Queretaro.

The Liberal troops at San Luis had been sent to Queretaro.

The Liberals are anxious to end the struggle at Queretaro, and are working energetically and successfully to do so.

The New Orleans Times publishes a report received from a private source, which says: "Another battle has been fought at Queretaro, resulting in the defeat of the demoralized Imperialists, and death of Miramon. After the fight Queretaro was occupied by the Liberals. Maximilian can't be found anywhere, and it is supposed that he has secretly fled." This confirms the report that Diaz had defeated Miramon, and the Liberals are complete masters of the situation.

FROM NEW YORK.

BANK CLERK ARRESTED.

NEW YORK, May 2.—A clerk in a Broadway bank has been arrested on a charge of defalcation.

NOTED FORGER CAUGHT.

James R. Cross, a noted forger, has been arrested in this city on a charge of having committed the crime in Chicago.

FLOUR FROM CALIFORNIA.

The steamer Henry Chauncey, which arrived this morning from San Francisco, brings over nine hundred sacks of flour from California.

FAILURES AT HAVANA.

Advices from Havana state that numerous failures have occurred to large amounts. A wealthy planter of Argentine has suspended with liabilities of two and a half millions, which his assets will go far to pay. Senor Oviedo, the diamond wedding man, has made an arrangement with creditors for fifty per cent, which he is enabled to pay and thus be saved becoming bankrupt. Several more failures were expected.

SUICIDE.

Among the suicides was that of Ann Ann.

At a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce to-day a communication from the board of trade of Macon, Georgia, requesting the board to appoint a committee to take measures to receive subscriptions, to enable the land holders of the South to hire and feed laborers to insure an early and plentiful harvest, such loan being secured by the lien law of Georgia on the autumn crop, was read and referred to the Executive Committee.

PASSENGERS FOR EUROPE.

Among the passengers that sailed to-day for Europe, per Cunard steamer, were: W. Doet, Detroit, C. Henking and family, Ohio, F. Villegan and lady, Milwaukee, F. Bergenholz and family, Illinois, R. Finger, Mississippi, F. W. Jacobs, Mississippi, C. Hoppe, Geo. Wagner, Jno. Ohlralher, Illinois, Jno. Spence, Kansas, Mr. Hollander, Indiana, Mr. Louisville, G. F. Thorne, C. FROM PANAMA AND AUSTRALIA.

Enlistments at Panama in Expectancy of an Invasion—Cargo of Women Shipped for Transported Convicts—Heavy Bank Robbery—Bank Teller Arrested for Embezzlement.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

NEW YORK, May 2.—The following is per the Henry Chauncey:

The Panama Star says the President of the State, in view of the expected invasion of Walker, has issued a decree taking steps to meet any emergency that may occur for the preservation of the State. Early in January last the enlistment of the militia and place them on a war footing, and in Panama enlistment is carried on with energy.

Australian advices, from Sidney March 1st, and Wellington 8th, have reached Panama. The steamer Lady Jocelyn, having several females, intended as wives for the convicts, recently departed to New Caledonia, touched at Sidney.

Bills and acceptances valued at nearly a million sterling had been stolen from the Oriental Bank, but were recovered. One man was arrested on suspicion of being the robber.

Lotion picking had commenced in Queensland, and a large crop was expected.

Twelve vessels were chartered to load wheat from one port alone for England.

The Zinnol, one of the fleet, capsized and sunk. The crew were saved.

R. Johnston, late teller of the Commercial Bank of Sidney, and Mr. Gray, manager of the branch thereof at Singleton, have been arrested for embezzlement.

FROM THE WEST.

Secretary Stanton Urged as a Candidate for President—Scarcity of Wheat in Minnesota.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

ST. LOUIS, May 2.—The Democrat's Jefferson city dispatch says Governor Fletcher and a large number of leading men from Northwestern States are corresponding with a view of securing the nomination of Secretary Stanton for next President.

The Dubuque Herald states, on the authority of a gentleman from Minnesota, that the Governor of that State is about to issue a proclamation urging the citizens to ship no more wheat down the river until after harvest, owing to a scarcity.

FROM BOSTON.

A Revenue Officer and Others Charged with Conspiring to Defraud the Government.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

BOSTON, May 2.—D. Davis, internal revenue officer, W. A. Wright, ship master, E. H. Maxwell and John E. Cassidy, were arraigned before the United States Commissioner, charged with conspiring to defraud the government, by obtaining a draw back on a large quantity of alcohol, on the pretence of shipping it to England, and then substituting water for spirits. They were held to bail in the sum of $10,000 each for trial.

FROM ALABAMA.

State Convention of Colored People—Alliance with the Republican Party.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

NEW YORK, May 2.—A dispatch special to the Tribune says a Convention of colored citizens of that State is now in session there. The object is to take grounds as to their future votes. They will proclaim unbroken alliance with the Republican party.

The Races at Memphis.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

MEMPHIS, May 2.—The races were largely attended to-day. Many turf men from abroad were present. The first race, a dash of two miles for a purse of $200, was won by Fanny Brown; time, 4 minutes and 7 seconds. The second, for $300, best two in three, was won by Mollie Austin; time, 2 minutes 3½ seconds; one minute and 57½ seconds. The next meeting will be on Saturday.

The Gosport, Indiana, Murder—Arrest of the Supposed Murderer.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 2.—The evidence before the Coroner's jury, at Gosport, to-day, implicated Willis McMunning as the murderer of John Ash, and he has been arrested. The greatest excitement prevails.

Ticket No. 36,926 in the gift enterprise at Richmond, for the benefit of disabled soldiers drew the prize of $5,000 in U. S. greenbacks.

LAND OFFICE MATTERS.

Reconstruction Injunction Argument.

INTERNAL REVENUE RECEIPTS.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

WASHINGTON, May 2, 1867.

NO COLORED CANDIDATES.

The colored citizens of the First ward have decided not to nominate any candidate of their own race.

IMPEACHMENT INVESTIGATION RESUMED.

The House Judiciary Committee met this morning to gather evidence to impeach the President. All the members were present except Messrs. Wilson, Iowa; Boutwell and Woodbridge. They adjourned till to-morrow without transacting any business.

METERS FOR DISTILLERIES.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has issued regulations for supplying distilleries with meters, and securing their proper attachment.

LAND OFFICE DECISION.

The Commissioner of the Land Office has decided in the case of a homestead settler, who died unmarried, and whose father applied for preference of the right to take the land by ordinary purpose, at one dollar and twenty-five cents per acre, that this could not be granted, but on satisfactory proofs of the death of the homestead party, and publication under the 2d section of the Homestead Act, that such land be paid for at one dollar and twenty-five cents per acre, and entry made under the 5th section in favor of the heirs of the deceased.

LANDS FOR WISCONSIN.

There has been prepared at the General Land Office, and transmitted to the Secretary of the Interior for approval, a list of lands, amounting to 199,431 acres, which enured to the State of Wisconsin under the act of July 13th last, granting lands to said State to aid in the construction of a harbor, breakwater and ship canal to connect the waters of Sturgeon Bay with Lake Michigan.

THREE PER CENT. CERTIFICATES.

The three per cent. certificates authorized by the act of March 2d, 1867, will not be issued before August. The compound interest notes falling due in June or July will probably be paid in money at maturity.

RECONSTRUCTION INJUNCTION.

The argument on the reconstruction injunction will be concluded in the Supreme Court to-morrow.

REVENUE RECEIPTS.

The revenue of Georgia Lodge amounted to $14,414,030 56; total since beginning or present fiscal year, $228,440,804 87.

CONDENSED NEWS.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

J. L. Hickman, a well known real estate and money broker, died of apoplexy this morning.

A report was presented at a recent meeting of the French Transatlantic Company to show that the average speed of their screw steamers exceeded by more than one knot per hour the mail contract time. The Washington and Lafayette paddle steamers, now running from France to Aspinwall, are to be altered to screws.

The wooden factory of Charles Atkinson, at Fairport, N. Y., was totally destroyed by fire on Thursday. Loss estimated at $30,000, insured for $20,000.

Forty-six prisoners who have been confined in Libby Prison, Richmond, have arrived at Fortress Monroe, to await their trials before a Court Martial.

FROM CHICAGO.

The Eight Hour Law—Unpleasant Results—A Mob of Five Hundred Workingmen Force Ten Hour Essays from Their Employers.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

CHICAGO, May 2.—The eight hour system is already producing unpleasant results. Many employers have complained. In a large number of manufacturing and other business establishments operations have practically ceased. Yesterday fifteen men employed in them insisting on the new system as to the number of hours that will constitute a day's work. Most of the employers refuse to make any such change. In some instances employers demand ten hours' work for eight hours' pay, and the employees demand eight hours' pay for eight hours' labor, while still others are willing to work ten hours and receive pay for nine as heretofore, receiving the same pay. The unemployed at some places have already interfered to prevent the latter from working. Early this morning some five hundred gathered together in the neighborhood of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad shops, with the object being to close up the ten hour establishments. Their first move was on King & Bro.'s lumber yard, which they summarily closed, took King & Phillips' planing mill and closed it, and then went to Dalton's lumber yard, where they were met by the police, and after a parley of some minutes the mob dispersed. Other places were visited, but we do not hear of any serious results.

THE INDIANS.

Conference with Noted Warriors—They Make a Proposition to Remain Peaceful on Certain Conditions—A Modest Request.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

ST. LOUIS, May 2.—The Democrat's St. Joseph special says: Dispatches of the latest dates that the Commissioners have succeeded in getting together, at Benvas Racine, about twenty miles from fifty Indefs, among them many of the most noted warriors south of the Platte River. They stated that they would be agreeable if the government would set aside three hundred thousand square miles of land as a reservation, the Government to protect them from all interference and keep every one, both white and red, from trespassing on their reservation. They also require the Government to furnish them with arms, ammunition and provisions. The Commissioners were to reply to this modest request on the following day.

COURT REPORTS,

District Court.

Before Hon. H. W. Williams.

Bullum, Kehew & Co. vs. Mrs. E. F. Denny and Patrick Pender. Before reported. The jury found for plaintiff for $1,355 27 amount due, and interest thereon to date, and further that each of the parties pay one-half the costs.

John R. and Nancy Large vs. Jane and Robert Robb. Case continued, after a jury had been sworn, at defendants' cost.

Egbert S. Ward vs. S. K. Kane and Theodore Noble, impleaded with John Rowan and Jas. B. Angel, partners as S. K. Kane & Co. Action on a promissory note, or draft for $1,119.77 delivered to defendants and payable to the order of plaintiff in four months after date, July 6th, 1865, for 166 tons crude oil furnished Neptune refinery. Defendants, Noble and Angel, made defense to the claim, averring that no such partnership does or did exist as alleged, and that the firm of S. K. Kane & Co., so far as they were aware, was composed of S. K. Kane and others to them unknown; that the draft used upon was not accepted by either of them or by their authority, nor the crude oil, for that it purported to have been given, purchased by either of them. On trial at adjournment.

Pittsburgh Methodist Episcopal Sunday School Institute.

SECOND DAY.

The Institute convened at nine o'clock, and was opened with reading selections of Scripture by Rev. J. T. Vincent, Conductor, after which Rev. G. W. Baker offered prayer.

The Institute proceeded to business. "Teaching Defined," was presented by Mr. Vincent. Reply by Rev. E. L. Miller, who subsequently made the following classified report: 1. Teaching is communicating or imparting instruction, knowledge, truth. 2. Teaching is communicating or imparting instruction, knowledge, &c., with special reference to mental development. 3. The communication of religious knowledge with special reference to bringing the pupil to Christ. Followed with some general remarks.

Bible Study, the second Item of the programme, was taken up, namely, the "Temptation of Christ." The Institute was divided into eight classes, taught by N. W. White, Rev. P. L. Metcowan, Thos. Bakewell, J. Gross, Rev. W. H. Tibbes, J. C. Northrop, R. C. Christy, Esq., and Rev. L. R. Beacon. Thirty minutes were allowed to this lesson. Each teacher gave a detailed outline of the manner in which he taught. The mode of teaching was criticised by uniting those who had been taught. Many of the answers were fatrogisable, but in some instances condemnatory. All the criticisms, however, were kind, interesting and suggestive. This topic brought out very interesting remarks from Revs. Endsley, Long, Burt, Wilkinson, Snyder, Nesbit, Horner, Wightman, Rev. Mr. Thomas, Rev. Mr. Vincent then presented "A Picture Lesson," illustrating object teaching, as applied to the Bible, which was a highly pleasure as well as instruction to the audience.

The topic "What Advantage to the Bible Student is a Knowledge of Sacred Geography?" was discussed by Rev. Dr. Nesbit. He handled the subject in a very able manner, much to the satisfaction of the congregation.

Rev. S. M. Hickman, pastor of South Common M. E. Church, Allegheny, presented the topic, "How shall we teach this and kindred topics in the Sunday schools of our spiritual subjects of the Sunday school?" who contended that it was the manner in which we prosecute any subject or calling that constitutes the success or failure. Blackboard exercises in Sacred Geography followed by Mr. Vincent, who unfolded the principles of science by a course of training personally applied.

Mr. Vincent thought that sacred geography might be taught in the Sunday afternoon class, and as an incentive to effort the pupils were made first Pilgrims to the Holy Land, then Palestine, then explorers—then dwellers in Jerusalem, and last Templars.

Conductor Vincent spent the closing half hour of the session in returning verbal answers to written questions on a variety of subjects connected with the Institute, which he entered with benediction by Rev. Dr. Nesbit.

EVENING AND CLOSING SESSION.

On the evening of the Institute a large concourse of people were gathered into the beautiful audience room of Christ Methodist Episcopal Church, corner of Fifth avenue and Wood street, the exercises promptly on the hour of seven. The decorations of the vast audience among the beautiful hymn collection, "Sweet hour of prayer," after which Rev. J. Kennedy, pastor of Wesley Chapel, led in prayer.

Immediately after prayer, reports of committees were called for. Rev. E. R. Griffen presented the report of the committee on "What suggestions have you to make in regard to Teachers' Meetings?" The question, "What is meant by the salvation of the soul?" was answered by Rev. S. Burt, pastor of Centenary M. E. Church. Questions were then called for from the people connected with our schools, which was responded to by Rev. S. M. Hickman.

The Institute was favored by a lengthy address on "The Sunday School teacher in the preparation of his studies." He showed the steps to be taken in order to be successful. 1. Prayer. 2. Some Apparatus. 4. Books—Bible, blank book, concordance, cyclopedia, scrap book and lexicon. 5. Read with a view to reference to teaching was. 1. Study how to read. 2. How to begin and end. 3. Study to make the lesson simple. 4. Seek simple forms of expression. 5. Memorize subject. 7. Talk about it. 8. Seek illustrations in talk among children. 9. Study to be natural. 10. Pray.

Mr. Vincent stated the form of installation of Sunday school Teachers in a clear and effective manner.

A vote of thanks was tendered to Rev. J. H. Vincent for the able and satisfactory manner in which he has conducted the exercises of this Institute.

It was moved to publish the proceedings in pamphlet form. Carried. The Institute adjourned always buys a copy, the author expects a princely influence to burst upon him."

At the close the members of the proposed Normal class met and formed a permanent organization, at Christ M. E. Church, to perfect its organization, and enter upon the work assigned them. The following men employed in them insisting on the new system as to the number of hours that will constitute a day's work. Most of the employers refuse to make any such change. In some instances employers demand ten hours' work for eight hours' pay, and the employees demand eight hours' pay for eight hours' labor, while still others are willing to work ten hours and receive pay for nine as heretofore, receiving the same pay. The unemployed at some places have already interfered to prevent the latter from working. Early this morning some five hundred gathered together in the neighborhood of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad shops, with the object being to close up the ten hour establishments. Their first move was on King & Bro.'s lumber yard, which they summarily closed, took King & Phillips' planing mill and closed it, and then went to Dalton's lumber yard, where they were met by the police, and after a parley of some minutes the mob dispersed. Other places were visited, but we do not hear of any serious results.

Fire in Findley Township.

On Sabbath, the 28th ult., a fire of no ordinary size occurred in Findley township, on the south side, under the following circumstances: John Cain and William Cool started a fire on Saturday afternoon for the purpose of smoking out an opossum that had taken lodging in a tree on the farm of Mr. Cool. On Saturday evening, having as they thought extinguished the fire, they left it; but it is supposed some of the embers had remained among the ashes. On Sabbath evening the usually quiet neighborhood was alarmed by the cry of "fire," the embers having been fanned into a flame, which communicated to the leaves, and which took fire, and spread rapidly, threatening for a time great destruction in the vicinity. Within half an hour a large crowd assembled, and the fire was finally extinguished without serious damage. Had it been discovered fifteen minutes later it must have resulted very seriously. The thanks of the citizens of the neighborhood are due to Messrs. S. J. Hunter and —— Adams for their efforts in extinguishing the flames. It is needless to say that his opossumship was roastedalive.

The Whisky Court.

The County Commissioners, now the License Board, had considered up to yesterday morning, two hundred and fifty-five applications for tavern and eating house licenses, of which they granted eighty-three, refused thirty-four, and held over one hundred and thirty-eight for further consideration. Of the applications granted, fifty-one were from the city, thirty-two from Allegheny, fifty-one from the boroughs, and seventy-three from the townships. Of those granted forty-four were from the city, twenty-four from Allegheny, four from the boroughs and eleven from the townships; of those refused twenty-four were from the city, three from Allegheny, six from the boroughs, and one from the townships; of those held over thirty-one were from the city, five from Allegheny, forty-one from the boroughs, and sixty-one from the townships.

Livery and Sale Stables.

Our readers on the other side of the Monongahela will be pleased to know they have in their midst something needed at all times. We mean a good livery stable and a practical undertaker. Mr. H. Miller has now a first class establishment of the above heading on Carson street, Birmingham. Mr. Miller has a fine assortment of new carriages and gay horses and buggies for hire, and will furnish for private families carriages, and drivers who can be relied on for safety. He also furnishes coffins of all kinds, hearses and carriages, and gives his personal attention in conducting funerals. Horses kept at livery will receive the best attention. We cheerfully recommend this establishment to the patronage of our readers.

On Thursday Night of last week, a man named Isaac Collins was run over by an engine at a point a short distance west of Lily's station, on the Pennsylvania Rail road, and was badly hurt. He was travelling on the railroad, and had stepped off one track to avoid an approaching train only to be run over by the engine on the other.

Peculiarities of Construction.

THE MASON & HAMLIN CABINET ORGANS should not be judged by, or confounded with, melodeons, harmoniums, seraphines, or any other organs, or instruments of whatever name, made by other makers, because several of the most important improvements effected by Mason & Hamlin, and from which their instruments in a large measure derive their excellence, are patented, and cannot be used by any other manufacturers. Mason & Hamlin also exclusively employ certain machinery and processes of manufacture which give greater excellence to their instruments. It is these advantages, in connection with the extraordinary care and experienced skill employed by M. & H. which give to their instruments a distinctive character, and have won for them unanimous and decided

DEMOCRACY—CONSERVATISM.

From its nature genuine Democracy has ever been the most radical and uncompromising element of political society. Constantly aggressive—frequently revolutionary—it challanges all pretensions, contemns every sort of prescription, defies usage and precedent, and seeks to lay its foundations and rear its superstructure on the granitic principle of the universality and equality of rights. This is why, in all ages, the world over, it has been deemed, by the advocates of caste and privilege, as fanatical and incendiary. It interrogates; it agitates; it asserts rights; it breaks fetters; it proclaims brotherhood. Like the gospel, its mission is not to bring peace and repose, but to assail and pull down all forms of despotism, until each man shall stand clothed with his natural and inalienable inheritance of political authority.

This is why all crowned heads of Europe are to-day in league against Democracy. Whatever jealousies they may feel towards each other; however each of them may contrive and toil to exalt himself and abuse others; they are always ready to be mutually helpful against democracy, which they feel to be a common enemy.

In the United States, all the representative men and newspapers of the party that claims to be pre-eminently democratic, take special pains to parade their conservatism. In them democracy has ceased to be trenchant, self-asserting, reformatory! It has pet abuses it seeks to defend, old privileges it wants to perpetuate, venerable assumptions it labors to make all men bow down to; and deceitful expediencies it desires to install instead of vital and unchangeable principles. It has identically the aspect and bearing of monarchy elsewhere. Is it the old snake in a new skin?

The chief difficulty ordinary mortals have in deciding this question proceeds from the indefiniteness with which they use the term conservatism. It does not appear precisely what they wish to conserve. Hitherto, it has not been a task of delicacy to discover what they were anxious to uphold. While the rebellion existed, they indubitably wished it should not be made successful. So long as Slavery had life and vigor in it, they were most desirous it should be preserved and strengthened. But both those objects, so highly esteemed in their day, have gone, not to come back. That their final departure affects the democracy with sad memories may reasonably be inferred from its devotion to them while they remained. But blind and infatuated as this democracy is, it can hardly hope to conserve things that have been dead so long that they stink.

Conservatism is a sort of instinct—abnormal and unhealthy—a contradiction of all that is beautiful in nature. In whatever crevice, fissure, cave or pit a plant may start into life, it struggles towards the light to find the day. Even the humble potato, hid away in dirty bin or barrel in the damp cellar, sends its long, succulent and tender shoots struggling up to the dingy window, inquisitive for the sun-light. But conservatism, though living in the full blaze of day, runs its head into unsightly holes, caverns and graves, in pursuit of congenial darkness and corruption. If it cannot find the dead, it learns the way the dead were last seen going, from heartfelt sympathy. This is the true index for determining what Conservatism means now. It mourns the dead Rebellion and Slavery, but cannot find them, and so takes lovingly to all the dangerous legacies those giants of iniquity left behind, seeking to stop the flowering out of Victory into Order and of Liberty into Equality. Hence, Conservatism here is the same in nature and essence as Counter-Revolution in Europe. It seeks to frustrate and put back every movement of the people towards Fraternity, Equality, Liberty; and to shelter and restore every abuse which public indignation knocks from its stool.

With this key in hand there is no difficulty in telling what Democratic men and organs mean by the unconservative clamor they now raise for conservatism. They do not, perhaps, hope to bring Slavery and the Rebell on back, but they want as large traces as possible of their existence to remain and plague generations coming. However, a wiser and better feeling is growing slowly up at the South. Already there are signs that that section will surpass the North in radicalism; and then Northern conservatism will find no covert in its distress.

DISCIPLINE OF POLITICS.

It has been stated as an axiom that goyernmont is costly in proportion to the number of persons who participate in it. If this rule of admeasurement is demonstrably correct, it must follow that the government of the United States is the most expensive on the face of the earth, ratably to the individual. If allowance is made for national, state, county, township, borough and city administrations, and for the time spent in political concerns by citizens who do not hold offices, this estimate must be taken as reliable. Freedom costs; but it pays. The development which politics give to the intellect; the impulse imparted thereby to laudable ambition; the swing and momentum communicated to business enterprise; the nobility in consciousness and bearing felt by the people; compensate many fold the extra outlay of popular institutions. The unprecedented increase of this country in population, wealth and power, is not all due to natural advantages of propitious climate, virgin soil, and inexhaustible mineral resources. To these benefits has been superadded, the quickening and intensifying influence of Freedom. As a discipline—as an educational force—our political system has proved a most remunerative investment.

To this discipline we are now subjecting the blacks. It is difficult to conceive of an equal amount of population living in so near proximity to Civilization, and yet sharing less in it. In addition to inferiority of race, the servitude in which they have been held has suppressed some natural excellences and engrafted many blemishes. More unpromising material could hardly be selected. Yet the experiment bids fair to be a success. All over the South the blacks are holding political meetings and discussing their rights and duties. Considerable rough and untutored ability is disclosed among them. As a class, they avoid excesses; exhibit a good degree of common sense and prudence; discriminate well what is for their advantage; and select their means with discretion. Nor are they left exclusively to their own guidance. Possessing political power in proportion to their numbers, the best men among the whites do not hesitate to attend and address their meetings. This confers upon them a sort of university training in political affairs; for the best part of a University course consists in hearing men lecture who have more than the ordinary amount of ability and culture; so to speak, coming in living contact with a superior man, and receiving the impulse he necessarily gives. These discussions, in which they share, or to which they listen, will soon indoctrinate them into the fundamental principles of the Government, and impart to them genuine conceptions as to the manner in which those principles are applied. The blacks will prove apt scholars.

Why should special fears be felt for the result? We have made experiments full as perilous as this; upon populations as numerous, as ignorant, as passionate, as wayward, as untamed; and the mischiefs, abundantly prophesied, have not been experienced. We have encountered those diversities of religious faiths, passions, and prejudices, which elsewhere have proved more insurmountable than repulsions of race and color, and have so far harmonized them as to escape the calamities usually proceeding from them. We have demonstrated that if there is such a thing as a Universal Solvent, it exists in the domain, not of Chemistry, but of Politics, and is Liberty.

UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD.

Since last fall the Union Pacific Railway of the Kansas, (legally known as the "Eastern Division,") has been extended from Fort Riley to Salina, a distance of fifty miles, and by the middle of the present month another section of twenty-five miles will be added. This will make in all two hundred and thirteen miles of that road completed and in operation west of the Missouri river at Wyandotte and Kansas City. During the present year it is the intention of the Company to push forward the road with great vigor. The work is well and substantially done, and there has been no interruption in the business of the road either from snows or floods.

So large and remunerative is the business on this road already, that the profits arising from it have enabled the Company to pay monthly into the national treasury not only the interest accruing on the bonds advanced ($16,000 per mile) but 2½ per cent. per annum on the principal.

During the present month a survey will be commenced through to the Pacific coast, under the direction of GEN. W. W. WRIGHT, Chief Engineer of this road, to determine the route through the mountains and valleys beyond the plains of Colorado. The results of that survey will be deeply interesting, as it will probably fix the location of the main thoroughfare between the Atlantic and Pacific.

We have spoken frequently of the Union Pacific Railway of the Platte, beginning at Omaha, on the west bank of the Missouri, in Nebraska. The work on that line has been pushed on with extraordinary rapidity; but the fact that much of the road was built on ground so low, that the late flood in the Platte and other streams overflowed many miles of it, doing extensive damage, is not calculated to inspire confidence either in its utility as a great thoroughfare, or in the men who would lay a road on such low ground. The Platte is an enormously wide river in proportion to the water it discharges, consequently its floods never rise very high; yet a few weeks ago a continuous section of forty miles of this road was under water. Of course all business was suspended; and the statement that it has been resumed is denied. The Kansas road, on the other hand, sustained no injury from the spring floods, and was doing a brisk business while its rival of the Platte was submerged. In fact, the experience of the past winter and the present spring has proven that the Kansas road can be operated at all seasons without interruption.

As Pennsylvania has a deep interest in this road—for its success will lead the main portion of the trade and travel between the Atlantic cities and the Pacific slope through it and through our city—we shall often take occasion to speak of it, and to urge its claims upon public and national favor.

PARLIAMENTARY REFORM.

Years ago political parties in Great Britain, and their respective politics, were sharply defined. No possibility existed of confounding the one with the other. This is no longer the case. Parties and their systems are so mixed up, it is hard to classify them by principles and measures. Names are no longer distinctive, and do not indicate on which side of a division those claiming one or the other will be found.

This was strikingly apparent in the recent struggle over the Reform bill. MR. DISRAELI led the tories, but his propositions were of such a character that a large part of the liberals voted with him and against MR. GLADSTONE, who was nominally their leader.

It is something when a tory leader, on a question of the extension of suffrage, goes so far as to take the wind out of the sails of an undoubted liberal. This may show a condition approaching a comparative chaos of parties; but it must proceed from a state of public opinion under which the conservative leaders see they cannot maintain their old ideas and plans, and so make concessions for the sake of holding power. When it comes to this there can be no question but that the popular side is the gaining side, whatever confusion may be introduced into the movements of parties. When tories become the champions of reform, and go beyond the limit to which the liberals, from prudential considerations, confine themselves, there can be no doubt but an advance has been made all along the line, and that the liberals will soon make a more radical demand.

—On the continent of Europe, as well as in this country, the subject has long been mooted, to hold a convention, to be composed of delegates from all the civilized nations of the earth, in order to agree upon a system which will lead to the establishment of a coinage of standard value for general use. However, when viewed in all its bearings on industrial and commercial economy, the fact is beyond cavil that the subject of an universal standard of value and measures is one of such vast importance that it renders this currency question a matter of secondary consideration. The course now adopted by the governments of various nationalities, fully sustain our containing and coinciding decimal fractions, has for some time been in general use among them. As most countries will be ably represented at the Paris Exposition, it is to be hoped that this matter will be agitated there, as that its ventilation will soon lead to tangible results. For notwithstanding the immense saving of mental exertion which would be effected through the general adoption of the decimal fraction system—the saving in the construction of weighing apparatus would also be very great.

—Quite a fright was occasioned at the Episcopal church, Lansing, Mich., Sab. ath evening, by the breaking of one of the stoves under the floor, letting it down about six inches. A large audience was present to witness the baptisms by the Bishop, and a grand rush was made for the door for a few seconds, but as soon as the difficulty was comprehended the services were resumed.

CONVINCING.

FULTON, Oswego Co., July, 1866.

MESSRS. HOSTETTER & SMITH—Gentlemen: I have been severely afflicted with paralysis of the stomach, and even given up by several eminent physicians. I have tried several remedies of a tonic and stimulating nature, but without any good result. Some three or four months ago I was induced to try your STOMACH BITTERS, and have used about seven or eight bottles with a decided benefit. My health is greatly improved, and I consider it a duty I owe to suffering humanity to give this voluntary testimony in favor of your valuable medicine. If used as directed, they will always prove a sovereign remedy to those afflicted with dyspepsia or other diseases of a like nature.

Respectfully yours, LYMAN MUDGE.

HASTINGS, Dakota Co., Minn., Aug., 1866.

MESSRS. HOSTETTER & SMITH, Pittsburgh, Pa.—Gentlemen: Have sold your BITTERS ever since they were introduced, and can say they are the best among the many before the public. Those brought out since the tax has been imposed on spirits are frauds, I never recommended them. Respectfully and truly yours,

H. J. MARVIN.

COLON, St. Joseph Co., Mich., July 31, 1866.

MESSRS. HOSTETTER & SMITH—Gentlemen: I consider your BITTERS a sovereign balm for a thousand ills. Yours truly,

PINUS CANADENSIS.

A tree which is abundant in Canada, Nova Scotia, and the more northern parts of New England States, and is also found in the elevated and mountainous regions of the Middle States, and abounds in medicinal virtues. Dr. Swett, of Boston, has prepared a medicine from the sweet inside bark of the pine tree, called POLAND'S WHITE PINE COMPOUND, which is one of rare value in all debilitated states of the kidneys. It acts like a charm in all diseases of mucous membranes, enabling them to regain their lost tone and energy. It will be found well adapted to all those diseases, where Buchu has been tried and failed. It is likewise a well suited for chronic coughs, and an infallible specific for old and debilitated cases of asthma. Many persons who at first only took a bottle of this medicine, to try, afterwards came back and got a dozen, or half dozen, which effected radical cures of diseases of the bladder and kidneys of years standing.

Diabetes, a disease that has been looked upon as among the incurables, is immediately relieved by it. Notice the certificate of Asa Goodnow, (so libeled some time ago.

The United States Dispensatory, speaking of the pine, says: "It is prescribed in consumptions, pearl, and other diseases of the urinary passages, in piles and chronic inflammation or ulceration of the bowels, in chronic catarrhal affections, and in various forms of rheumatism." It is exceedingly valuable in all gravelly affections, bloody urine, and where there is red and white sediment. It can be taken without interruption to one's usual avocations; and instead of sickening, produces a bracing, healthy power of endurance and vigor. Price, $1 per bottle; six for $5.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

FRIDAY, MAY 3, 1867.

A Triple Execution—Horrible Exhibition of Recklessness.

(From the Cincinnati Enquirer and Gazette.)

On the evening of the 7th of February last one of the most coldblooded tragedies that ever disgraced the annals of crime was committed on the Lick Run Turnpike, about one mile and a half beyond the Brighton House, near Cincinnati.

A respectable citizen named James Hughes, for many years in the employ of E. B. Smith & Co., coal dealers, Central avenue, as a clerk, was returning to his home in Green township, after a day of toil, when he was attacked by a party of men and brutally murdered. The body was found on the road side a few moments after the perpetration of the terrible deed, by a German named Henry Goetz. His attention was called to it by his son Leonard, a lad of scarce thirteen years of age.

For many days after the commission of the crime, the authorities failed to gain even the faintest clue in the work of discovering the perpetrators, and for a time it was supposed they would escape altogether. The most impenetrable mystery seemed to hang around the whole transaction like a gloomy pall, that Time's mighty hand could only raise.

The County Commissioners immediately offered a reward of $500 for the arrest and conviction of the murderers, while the lodge of Odd Fellows, to which Mr. Hughes belonged, were able to offer a similar inducement to an active search, when, on the night of February 13, just six days after the murder, three men named Samuel Case, George Goetz, and Alexander Algus, were arrested, and lodged in the Covington jail on suspicion of being the fatal three implicated.

Samuel Case, a lad not fifteen years of age, made a full confession of the crime, implicating himself in the other two. Case's confession was followed by one from George Goetz. The object of the murderers was money, a small sum having been taken from their victim.

The prisoners were each tried separately. Case first, and Goetz last. Each was convicted of murder in the first degree, and on Monday the 8th of March, they were brought into court, when Judge Murdock pronounced the sentence of death, fixing the day of execution for Tuesday, (yesterday) the 30th day of April. Samuel Case had not yet reached his fifteenth year, having been born in Covington, Ky., June 26, 1852. He had a lithe, slender frame, very boyish in its mould, with deep-set blue eyes and dark brown silken hair, which he wore long and combed back from a very pale, high brow. His mouth detracted from the general beauty of his features, being flat and sensual, while his nose stood out prominent, inclining to drop at the end. Being devoid of all education, it is not to be wondered at that he fell into the ways of the wicked, and while yet a child leagued himself with desperadoes familiar with crime, such as Goetz.

George Goetz was born March 23, 1845, near the city of Strausburg, in the department of Bas Rhine, France. When he had scarce attained his tenth year, his parents emigrated to this country, coming almost directly to Cincinnati, in which place and Covington they have lived ever since. During the greater part of the war he served in the Fifth ohio Infantry, and in an engagement was severely wounded in the shoulder. His general appearance was by no means repulsive, however, his studied politeness in conversation obliterating the first bad impression his appearance creates. No published picture that we have seen bears the faintest semblance to the great criminal. He had a pretty fair education, and was able to converse in French, English or German.

Alex. Algus came into this world on June 5, 1852, in the little village of Norop, in the Kingdom of Hanover. He was orphanized of both his parents when only four years old. He came to this country when eighteen, landing at Baltimore, and coming direct to this city, where he had acquaintances. He visited Louisville, but only remained a short time until he returned and took up his residence in Covington. He served two and a half years in the Twenty-second Kentucky Regiment, and afterward worked in a brick yard in Lenton county, Kentucky. He became acquainted with his partners in crime last autumn.

THE LAST NIGHT.

After having eaten a hearty supper on Monday night the three prisoners retired to rest, but it was nearly midnight when sleep closed their wearied, anxious eyes. Goetz was very restless, and during the entire night he did not sleep more than a few minutes at a time. Several times during the night he was heard to groan loudly. Algus slept well after the hour of ten had struck, and slept heavily until six o'clock yesterday morning, when he was awakened to receive a visit from his spiritual adviser and sisters.

THE LAST DAY.

About seven o'clock yesterday morning, the prisoners, with the exception of Goetz, ate a hearty breakfast, and dressed themselves with great care. The most of the morning was spent in religious services at the various cells, and receiving the last visit from friends and relatives.

When Rev. A. Emery entered Case's cell, he found him engaged in reading the 51st Psalm, and he had marked with pencil the 15th and 16th verses, in these verses his whole mind seemed wrapped up. Mr. Emery spoke to him of the last words he would ever hear from his mother, who is lying, as we have already said, at the point of death. That she said, "O, tell my boy to repent, and look to Christ, who alone can forgive sins." At this the brave words Case completely broke down, and it was quite a length of time before he was sufficiently composed to proceed with the service. At 11 o'clock he requested that the service of the Lord's supper might be administered to him. His request was attended. Goetz and Algus also partook of the same, it being administered by Fathers Hickney and Oehlman and two Sisters of Mercy.

In a conversation with Goetz, he stated that he did not intend to kill Mr. Hughes that he was bribed to kill Mr. R. B. Smith. He stated, also, that he felt it pretty hard to die by hanging, but even that was not nearly as hard as to commit the murder of an innocent man.

His brother appeared at his cell about eleven o'clock to take his final leave, and appeared to be very much affected, as was also Goetz. The brother asked the latter's pardon for it when in the first degree, and on Monday the 8th of March, they were brought into court, when Judge Murdock pronounced the sentence of death, fixing the day of execution for Tuesday, (yesterday) the 30th day of April. Samuel Case had not yet reached his fifteenth year, having been born in Covington,

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, } THURSDAY, May 2, 1867. }

The general markets present no new features worthy of special notice. A telegram from Chicago announces another advance in Flour "with more buyers that sellers," and it is but reasonable to suppose that this advance there, if sustained, will have a corresponding influence here. In other articles there is no material change, and our merchants, generally, are complaining of dullness.

GROCERIES.—The market is a shade weaker in the east, in consequence of the decline in gold, but, as yet, prices here have undergone no material change. Rio coffee is quoted at 25c for prime to fair to choice. Sugars—14½c for New Orleans; 11½ to 13½c for Cuba; 13 to 14c for Porto Rico; 10c for Sugar House; 12 to 13½c for Crushed; 15¾c for "A" Coffee; 14¾c for "B;" and 14¼ to 14½c for "C." Molasses, 95c to $1 for New Orleans; Porto Rico, 80 to 90c, and 70 to 75c for Cuba. Rice, 10¼ to 11c for Rangoon, and 11½ to 12c for Carolina.

GRAIN—Wheat, to use a common phrase, is "played out"—no stock in this market. Corn is firm, with a steady demand but unchanged; sale of 3 cars prime Shelled at $1,10. Oats quiet and unchanged in any way; quoted at 60 to 62c, and the usual advance for small lots in store. Rye is in demand at $1,60. Sale of 250 bushels fair Spring Barley at $1,05.

Since the above was put in type, we have the following additional sales reported: 2 cars Shelled Corn at $1,08; 10,000 bush. at elevator, on private terms; 4000 bush. Oats, in elevator, on private terms; 3 cars do at 65c, delivered; 175 sacks do at 66c, on track, and 1 car Rye at $1,60.

FLOUR—As already noted, advanced in Chicago to-day, but, as yet, prices remain unchanged here. We continue to quote at $14,50 to $15 for good to choice Spring Wheat; $15 to $16½ for Winter Wheat, and $18 to $19 for fancy brands. Rye Flour is firm at $9,50.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is quiet and unchanged at 9½ to 10c for Shoulders; 11¾ to 12½c for Rib and Clear Sides; 14 for Plain Hams; 15½ to 15¾c for Canvassed Sugar Cured, and 16½ to 16¾c for Canvassed. Dried Beef, 23c. Lard, 15c to 15¼, and Mess Pork, $23 to $23,50 per bbl. Lard was in demand at 22½c.

BUTTER—Was very dull to-day, the supply being considerably in excess of the demand, and prices slightly unsettled—25 to 30c, for good to choice fresh Roll.

EGGS—Dull, with an over-stocked market, but prices are unchanged, 15 to 16c.

POTATOES—Sales of 200 bags "mixed at 75c per bush, and 200 bbls common Neshannocks at 42 per bbl. Prime Peach Blows are selling in store, at $3 per bbl, and Buckeys at $3,50 to $4.

GREEN APPLES—Dull and unchanged—the supply of prime Apples is light. We continue to quote at $3 to $5 per bbl.

DRIED FRUIT—Continues dull but unchanged. Apples may be quoted at 8c to 9c, and Peaches at 16c to 18c, for quarters and halves.

SALT—Is quoted at $2,40 by the car load—$2,50, delivered, and $2,60, in store.

SEEDS—Timothy is in little or no inquiry for Cloverseed. Flaxseed is in good demand at $3, while Timothy is dull at same figure.

HAY—Good to prime baled is selling in sales of 20 to 25 tons per ton.

OIL—Lard Oil is still quoted at 90 cents for No. 2, and $1,10 for No. 1.

CENTRAL LIVE-STOCK MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, } THURSDAY, May 2, 1867. }

CATTLE.

The transactions in the cattle have again been remarkably light this week, and the reason to be assigned therefor is, scarcity. To-day the pens are nearly all empty, not over five or six car loads being on sale, and with no supply from which to make selections, eastern buyers are compelled to go home empty handed, unless they buy Hogs or Sheep, for a couple of them also being on hand. There is a very good demand for all grades of cattle, particularly good fat steers, suitable for retailing in the market tickets, and for this class of stock extreme prices could easily be realized, say 5 to 6¾, and extra fine do quoted at 7 to 7¼. These are extreme prices, but the kind of cattle that are referred to are in very limited supply, and there is, and has been all week, a fair attendance of buyers. The only shipments east have been about as large as usual, one-hundred and two cars having been shipped on Monday, and the number of cattle offered for sale at the yards is, and has been for weeks past, exceeding light. Stock cattle are also in good demand, and may be fairly quoted at 3 to 4c.

SHEEP.

The arrivals heep have been unusually large this week, but with a good attendance of buyers the market, as a whole, has been steady and, thus far, prices well sustained. As will be seen by reference to the sales, prices for good to extra fat mutton Sheep ranged from 7 to 7,75, and, as the good sold at from 6 to 6¾ gross. There is but comparatively little difference between clipped and wool Sheep, in lot case they exceed one cent per pound, and eastern buyers seem to prefer the former.

HOGS.

The market for this class of stock has undergone but little change since our last report, though, if anything, prices are a shade lower. Philadelphia Hogs may be quoted at 7¼ to 7¾, for fair to prime heavy averages. New York Hogs sold all the way from 6¾ to 7¾, during the week. Receipts have been fair, and the supply kept up with the demand.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, } THURSDAY, May 2, 1867. }

CRUDE—The market continues dull and unchanged—but two sales reported, 1200 bbls, on the spot, at 6¾, and one thousand barrels, to be delivered any time within the next twelve months, buyers option, on private terms. With continued unfavorable reports from the East and Europe, operators, generally, look for still lower prices, though there are those who believe that the bottom has been touched, and that no further decline of any importance will occur, come what will. From all that we can learn, there are but few buyers at oil City for this market, and until the price lets down there will be no business here, the number is not likely to be increased. At present figures there is no profit to the crude dealer, and they are not a class of men that care about working for nothing.

REFINED—The operations in bonded oil were somewhat larger, in the aggregate, than usual, but prices are no better, and the market is weak and dull. We have sales of 500 standard white, for September, and 500 for October, both at 36c, delivered in Philadelphia; 1000 for September; 1000 for October, and 1000 for November, all at 23½c, on cars here; 500 for all the year, buyer's option, at 22c, delivered in Philadelphia, and a "cull" for two five hundred barrel lots, all the year, both on private terms. Free oil is dull and unchanged.

ARRIVALS—No arrivals reported to-day, which, we presume, was owing to the river being to high to run oil with safety.

Chicago Cattle Market.

CHICAGO, April 30.—The fresh receipts of cattle to-day at the Union Stock Yards are 1250 head. Entered sales 619 head, at prices ranging from $5@6,25 for 1,300 to 1,700 lbs common cows, and from 7,37½@8,70 for good to choice shipping beeves. An extra choice 1,700 pound beef sold at 9c. Hemp county, Ky, sold at $9, and Walzall & Reinemann, Texas, averaged 1350 pounds. The market is quite active, buyers and sellers are apart in their views. There are to be shipments during the next two weeks to this market nearly 3000 head, and distillery fed cattle in view, and to depress values by sending them all at once. Let them be evenly distributed.

Milwaukee Market.

MILWAUKEE, May 2.—Flour quiet and higher; city, double extra, $@14,50; country do, $13,50@14,00. Wheat unsettled and higher, at 82,50 for No. 1, and $2,00 for No. 2. Oats firm, at 68@69c for No. 1, and 64@66c for No. 2. Corn advancing, at $1,01 for No. 1, and $1,02 for new shelled.

New York Produce Market.

By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.

Pork is more active and firmer; 6,100 bbls, at $25,50@25,50 for new mess, closing at $25,12½@25,50 old mess; $18,87@19,50 for prime; the latter for uninspected and $21,87@22 for prime mess. Beef firm; sales of 280 bbls at previous prices. Tierce beef firm; sales 150 tcs, at $12,50@25 for prime mess, at $28,50@30 for India mess. Beef steady; sales of 10 bbls 10½@10½c for Cumberland; 12½@13c for shoers ribbed; 12½@13c for clear and long cut; 10½@11c for prime. Cut Meats steady; sales 335 pkgs, at 8½@9c for shoulders; 12@13c for hams. Lard steady and quiet; sales 820 bbls, at 12½@13c. Butter dull, at 14@24c for Ohio. Cheese firm, at 10@12½c.

LATEST 5 P. M.—Flour is more active for medium, with a fair inquiry. Wheat; limited offering and strong with an upward tendency; sales 30,000 bush. Corn active and firmer; sales 60,000 bush. Oats active and advancing with western 2@3c. Corn has an upward tendency; old shipping mixed western $1,39@1,40 in store, and $1,42 afloat; white western $1,50@1,58 at depot and afloat. Pork steady at $25,37 regular closing with buyers at $25,50, and sellers at $25,62 regular. Beef nominally unchanged. Cut Meats nominal. Bacon firm at 10½@11½c for Cumberland, and 11½@12c for short rib. Lard dull at 12½@13 1-8c for fair to prime steam.

Cincinnati Market.

By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.

CINCINNATI, May 2.—Flour and Wheat firm, no sale to note. In Corn, buoyant and active, No. 1 mixed, 99c in bulk, and $1,10 sacked. Oats quiet at 71@72c. Rye steady at $1,70. Whiskey sold at $2,26 in bond. Cotton closed with a firmer feeling on the part of holders, and Middling was held at 26c, consequent upon the foreign news received. Lard active and firm, sales in good demand at $22,50, and all to be had at this rate was taken; holders now ask $23,00. Bulk lard was in demand at 22½c, and about 900 tierces city, but no Cincinnati brands, were purchased at this rate; best city brands held at 16½c. Bulk Meats held firmly, but nothing done; there could have been large sales made at 7¾c and 9¾c for shoulders and sides in bulk, especially for sides. Bacon is unchanged. Butter is held at 25@28c. Cheese steady. Gold closed at 134¾ buying, and 135¼ selling, but since bank hours firmer. Lard is on the street, and purchases made at 13½. Exchange firm.

Chicago Market.

By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.

CHICAGO, May 2.—Flour firm and 10@15c higher, with a good demand; spring extra $13@15; white winter $15@17. Wheat buoyant and 3@5c higher; No. 1 sold at $2,35, and at the close holders asked $2,00; No. 2 sold at $2,10@2,12. Corn strong at $1,04@1,05. Corn active, with an advance of 2@3c; market quiet at $1,05@ for No. 1, and $1,02 for No. 2. Oats firm and 2@3c higher, closing with sales of No. 2 at 67@68c. Rye 4@5c; sales of No. at $1,40@1,50. Sheep moderately active at $5,25@6,75.

New York Cattle Market.

By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.

NEW YORK, May 2.—The supply of beeves for the week commencing the 29th ult. will exceed 8,000 head. The market at all points is fairly active, but views as to tone is widely apart, while at Hudson City holders closed out their supply at a shade lower prices. Trade at Communipaw is rather slow. Holders anticipate, however, an improvement to-day. The National drovers' list prices of Monday, and in several cases higher prices, were realized, most sales being at 16@17c. Extra is quoted at 18@19c. The arrivals of cows are in excess of the demand and prices are about 5c easier, fair clipped stock 7½@8c, with one lot 9c. The market is a little better and we quote the quotations, ▼ with a few choice at 9@9½c.

New York Dry Goods Market.

By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.

NEW YORK, May 2.—The great feature in trade to-day is the large inventory sales of domestic cotton goods, which sold low, particularly denims, which were greatly depressed. The Arlington denims are down to 18c; Pearl ticking, 27½; Lemon, 23; Manchester, 21; Haymaker, 26; Boston, 23; Stark, 25; Hill, 23½; Warren & Haymaker, brown, 18. By auction, Otis, A.A., sold at 22½@22½c; do B.B at 22@22½c, and did not sell at 23c. For the first time of cotton the depression is less marked. Cottons (44) ticks are down to 32½. Wamsutta pillows are down to 12 and Nameless and Duchess B to 12½.

Baltimore Market.

By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.

BALTIMORE, May 2.—Flour dull and nominally unchanged. Wheat firm; sales of 1,000 bush Red at $2,30; 1,000 bush Pennsylvania red, $2,35 for fair and $2,50 for Maryland red; white dull and higher; receipts small; white, 2@2,25; amber, $2,30@2,40; mixed western $2,30@2,35.
